CANISIUS HIGH SCHOOL
BUFFALO, NEW YORK

Dear Father Quinn,

June, 1959

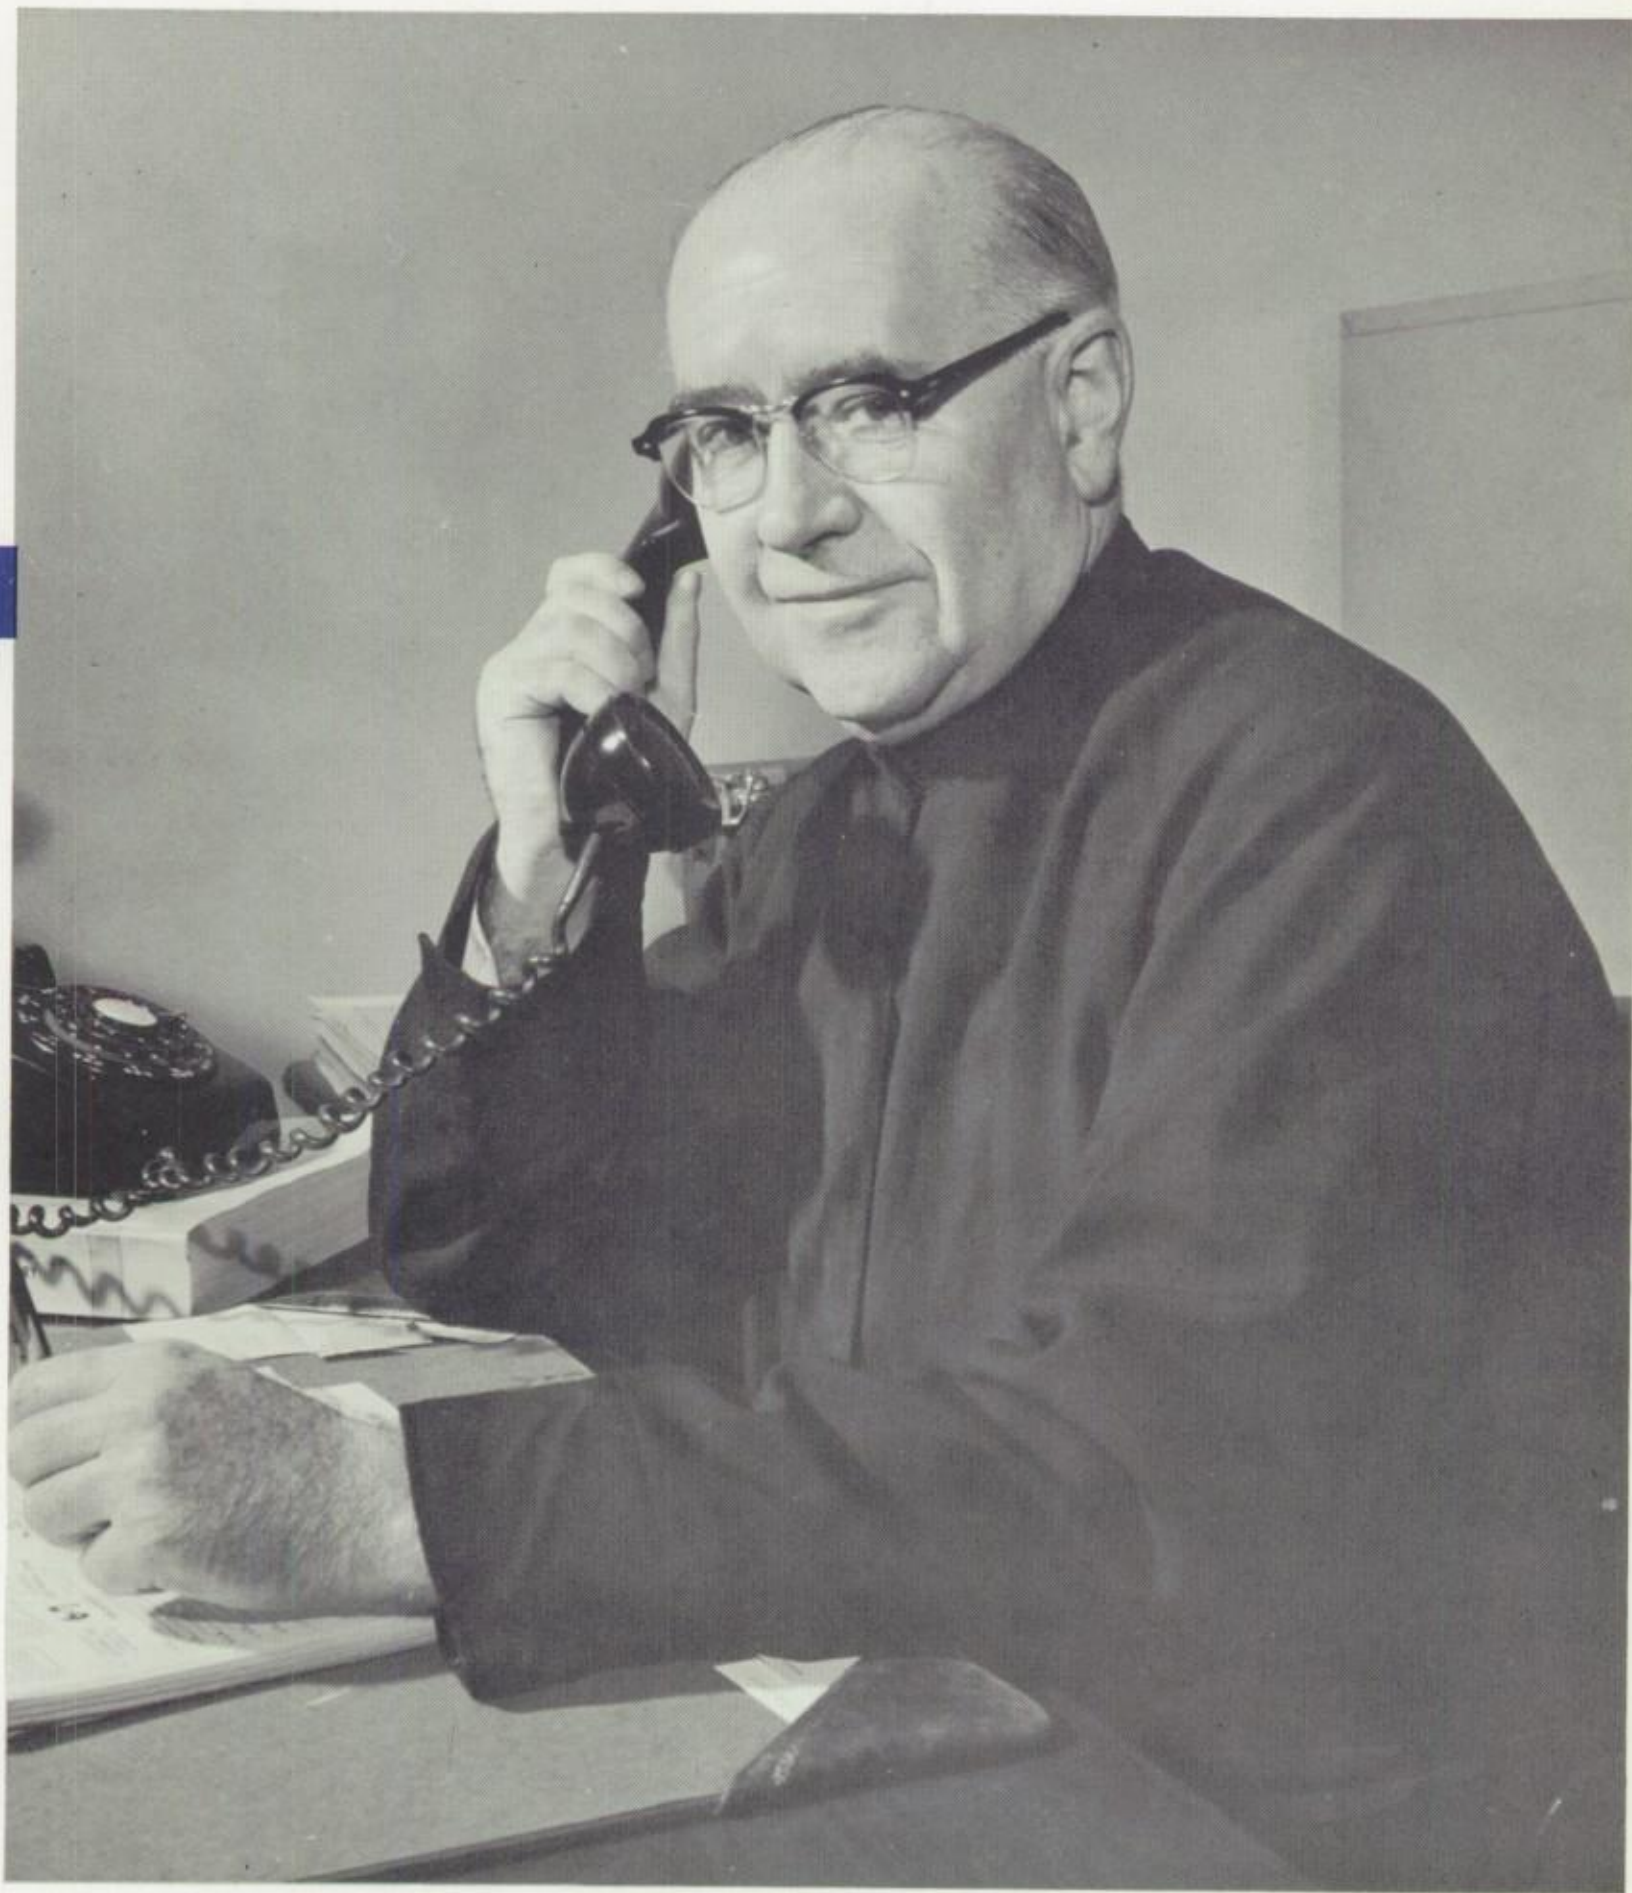

For the past twelve fruitful years, you have devoted all of your energy to the improvement of Canisius. Today, the result of your long years of tireless effort stands before you - a new Canisius, time-tested in tradition, modern in facility.

For the privilege of having shared four of those twelve years with you, we are deeply grateful and sincerely appreciative. We are grateful because we have had the pleasure of knowing you and because we realize that, though other hands may soon come to guide Canisius, our four years here have been greatly enriched because you were our Rector and friend. We are appreciative because you have given Canisius twelve wonderful years and have sought nothing in return.

Although it has always been your wish to remain behind the scenes and accomplish good in your own quiet way, we would now like to make known our appreciation to you before we leave.

And so it is that to you, our father and our friend, we, the senior class of 1959, gratefully dedicate this, our Arena Yearbook.

Dedication

VERY REV. GERALD A. QUINN, S.J.

May Our Divine Lord grant to his noble soul eternal peace.

His Holiness the Late Pope Pius XII

May Our Divine Lord grant him a long and prosperous reign.

His Holiness, Pope John XXIII

CANISIUS HIGH SCHOOL
BUFFALO, NEW YORK

You have served Canisius in many ways during the past twelve years, Father. You first came to us in the capacity of teacher. With many years of classroom experience behind you, you had a thorough knowledge of the problems of the high school student. For your understanding during the difficult formative years of our lives, we thank you... not only for ourselves, but also for those Canisius students before us who attained maturity through your guiding hand.

As Rector of the Canisius Jesuit community, you have directed the zealous group of priests, scholastics, and brothers in the noble endeavor of molding the characters of nearly a thousand students each year.

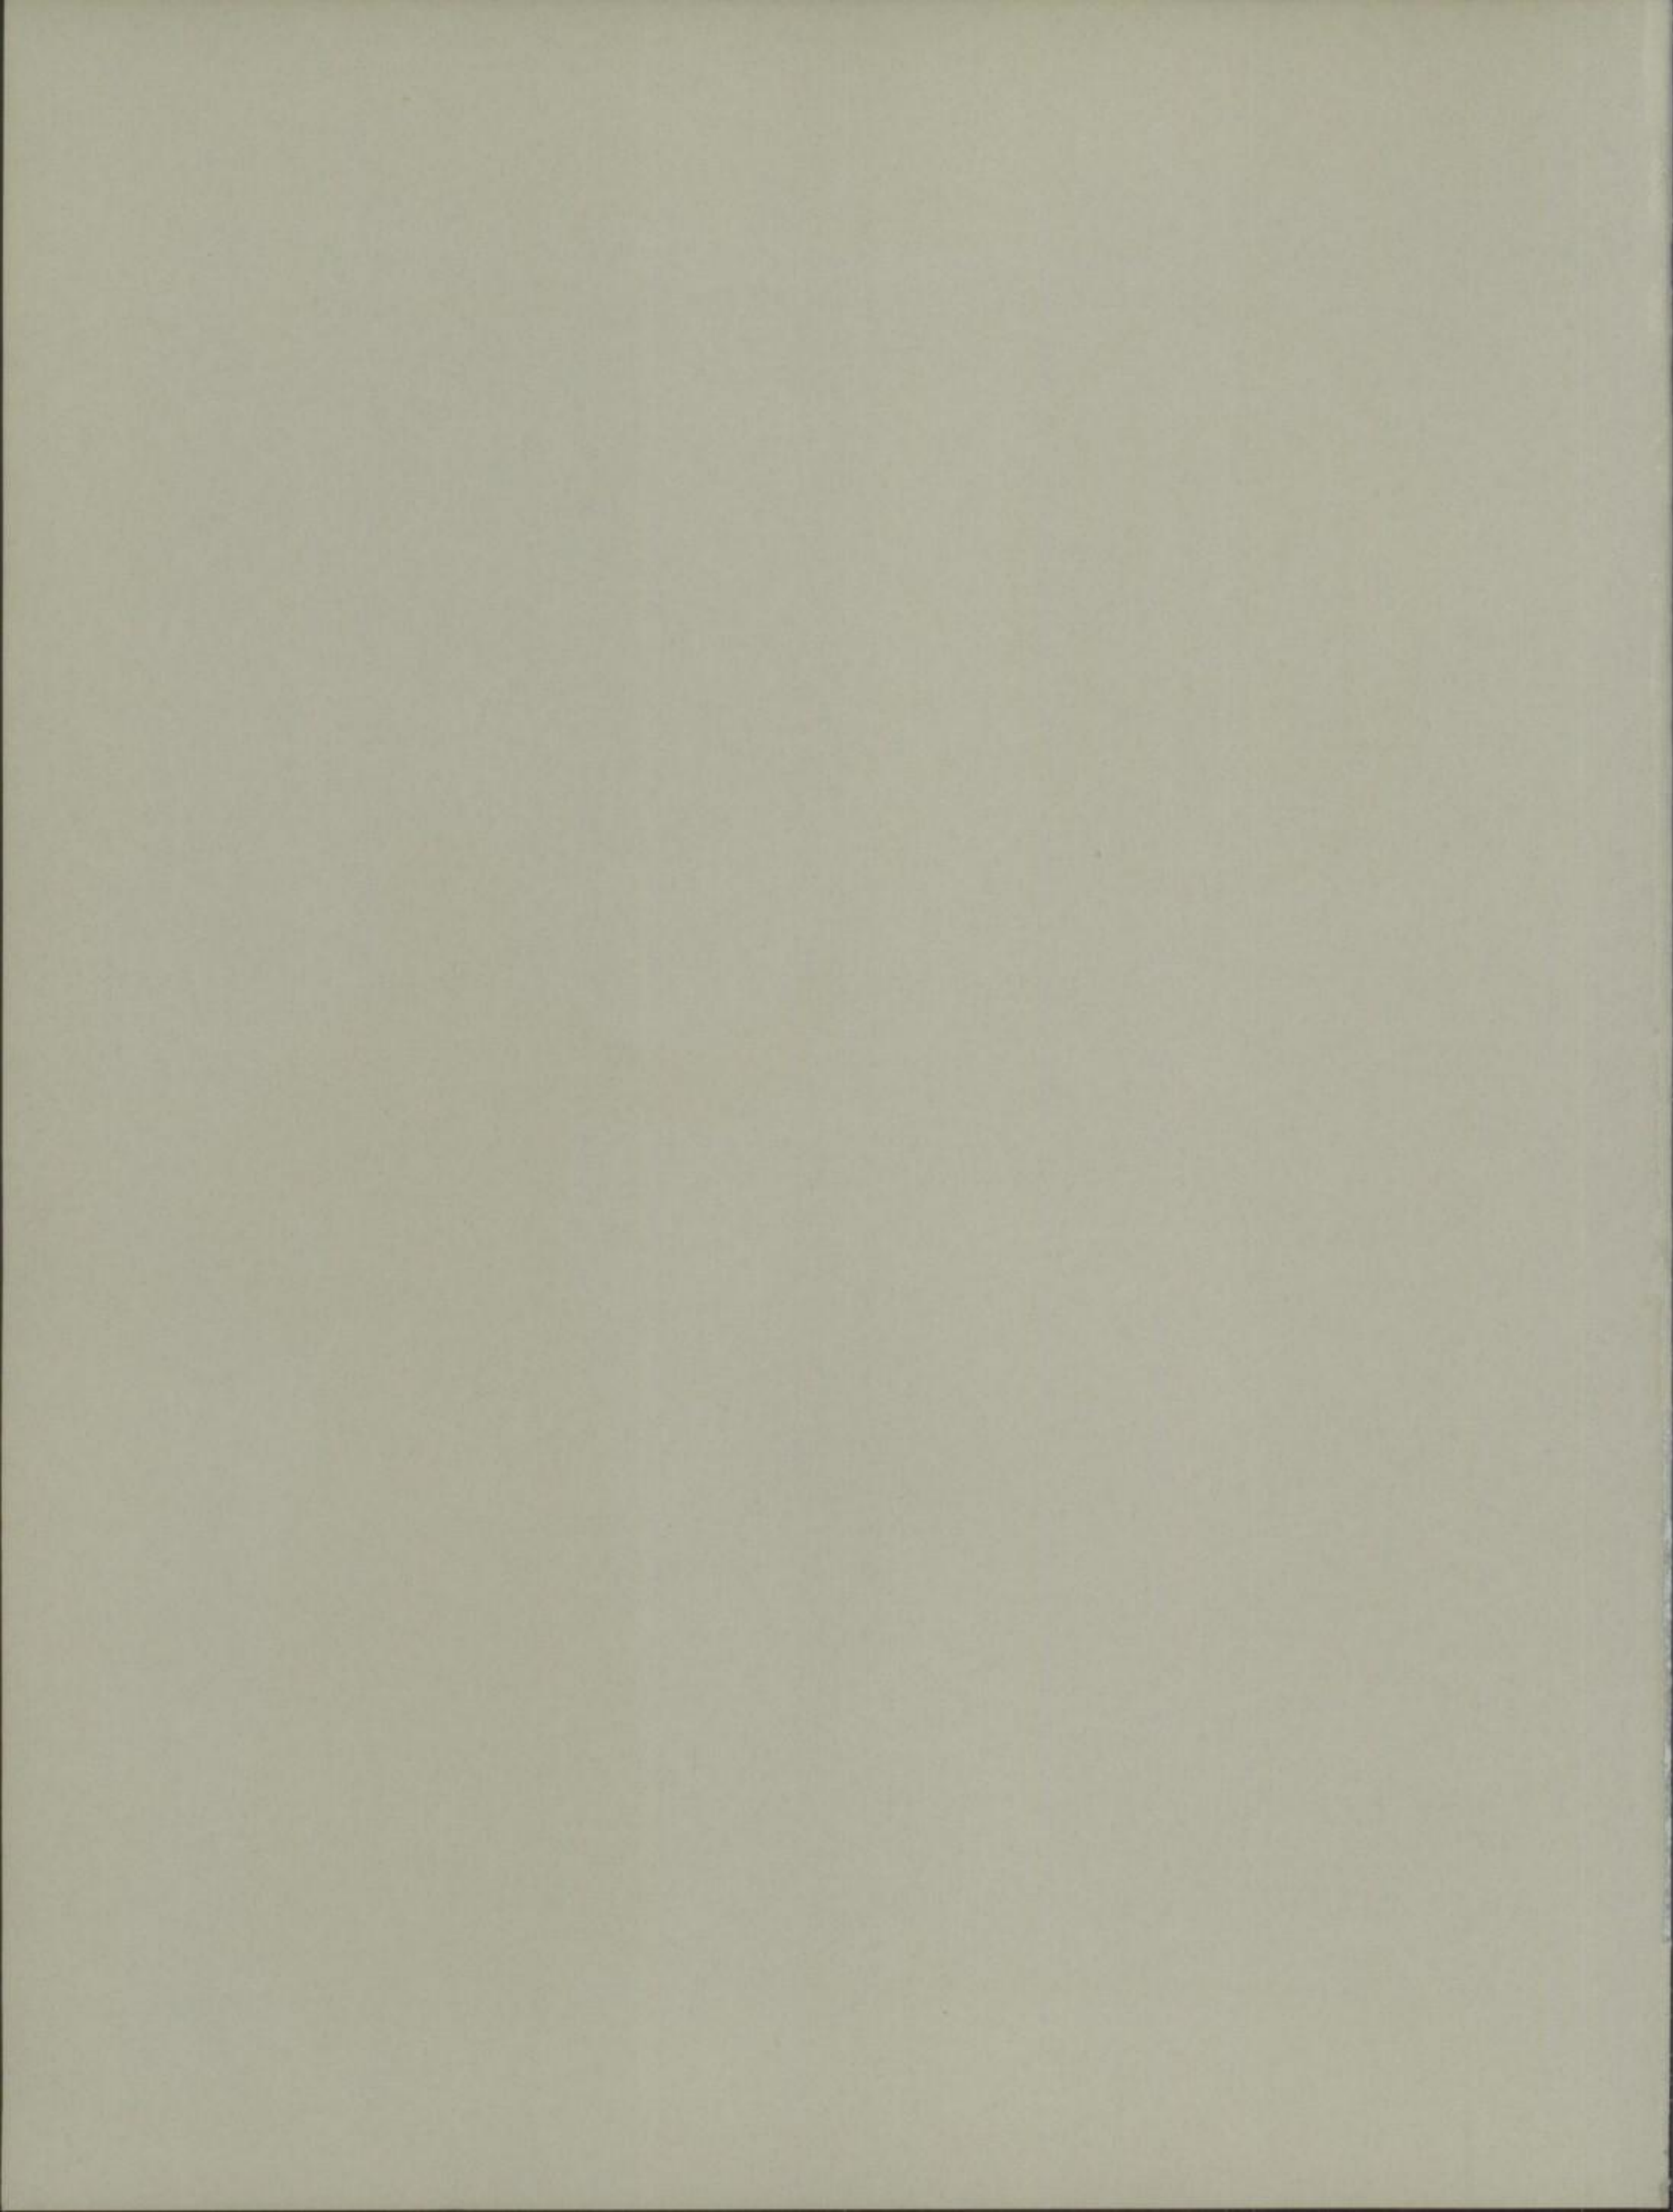

We remember the Friday assemblies devoted to the distribution of scholastic honors. You were there with us, Father, taking an active interest in our work. We saw in your congenial smile, firm handshake, and words of personal congratulations and encouragement, a reflexion of your sincere interest in our welfare. During your stay at Canisius, you have earned the admiration of teacher and student alike.

CANISIUS HIGH SCHOOL
BUFFALO, NEW YORK

It seems like only yesterday that we walked through the doors of Canisius for the first time. Canisius - the name sounded so mysterious to us then. It was not until we met you and the other members of the Jesuit Community that we realized the full significance of the name. From the very first moment of our education here, we were proud to be called students of Canisius. And you, Father, have always been one of the reasons why there is such a deeply rooted feeling for this school in our hearts.

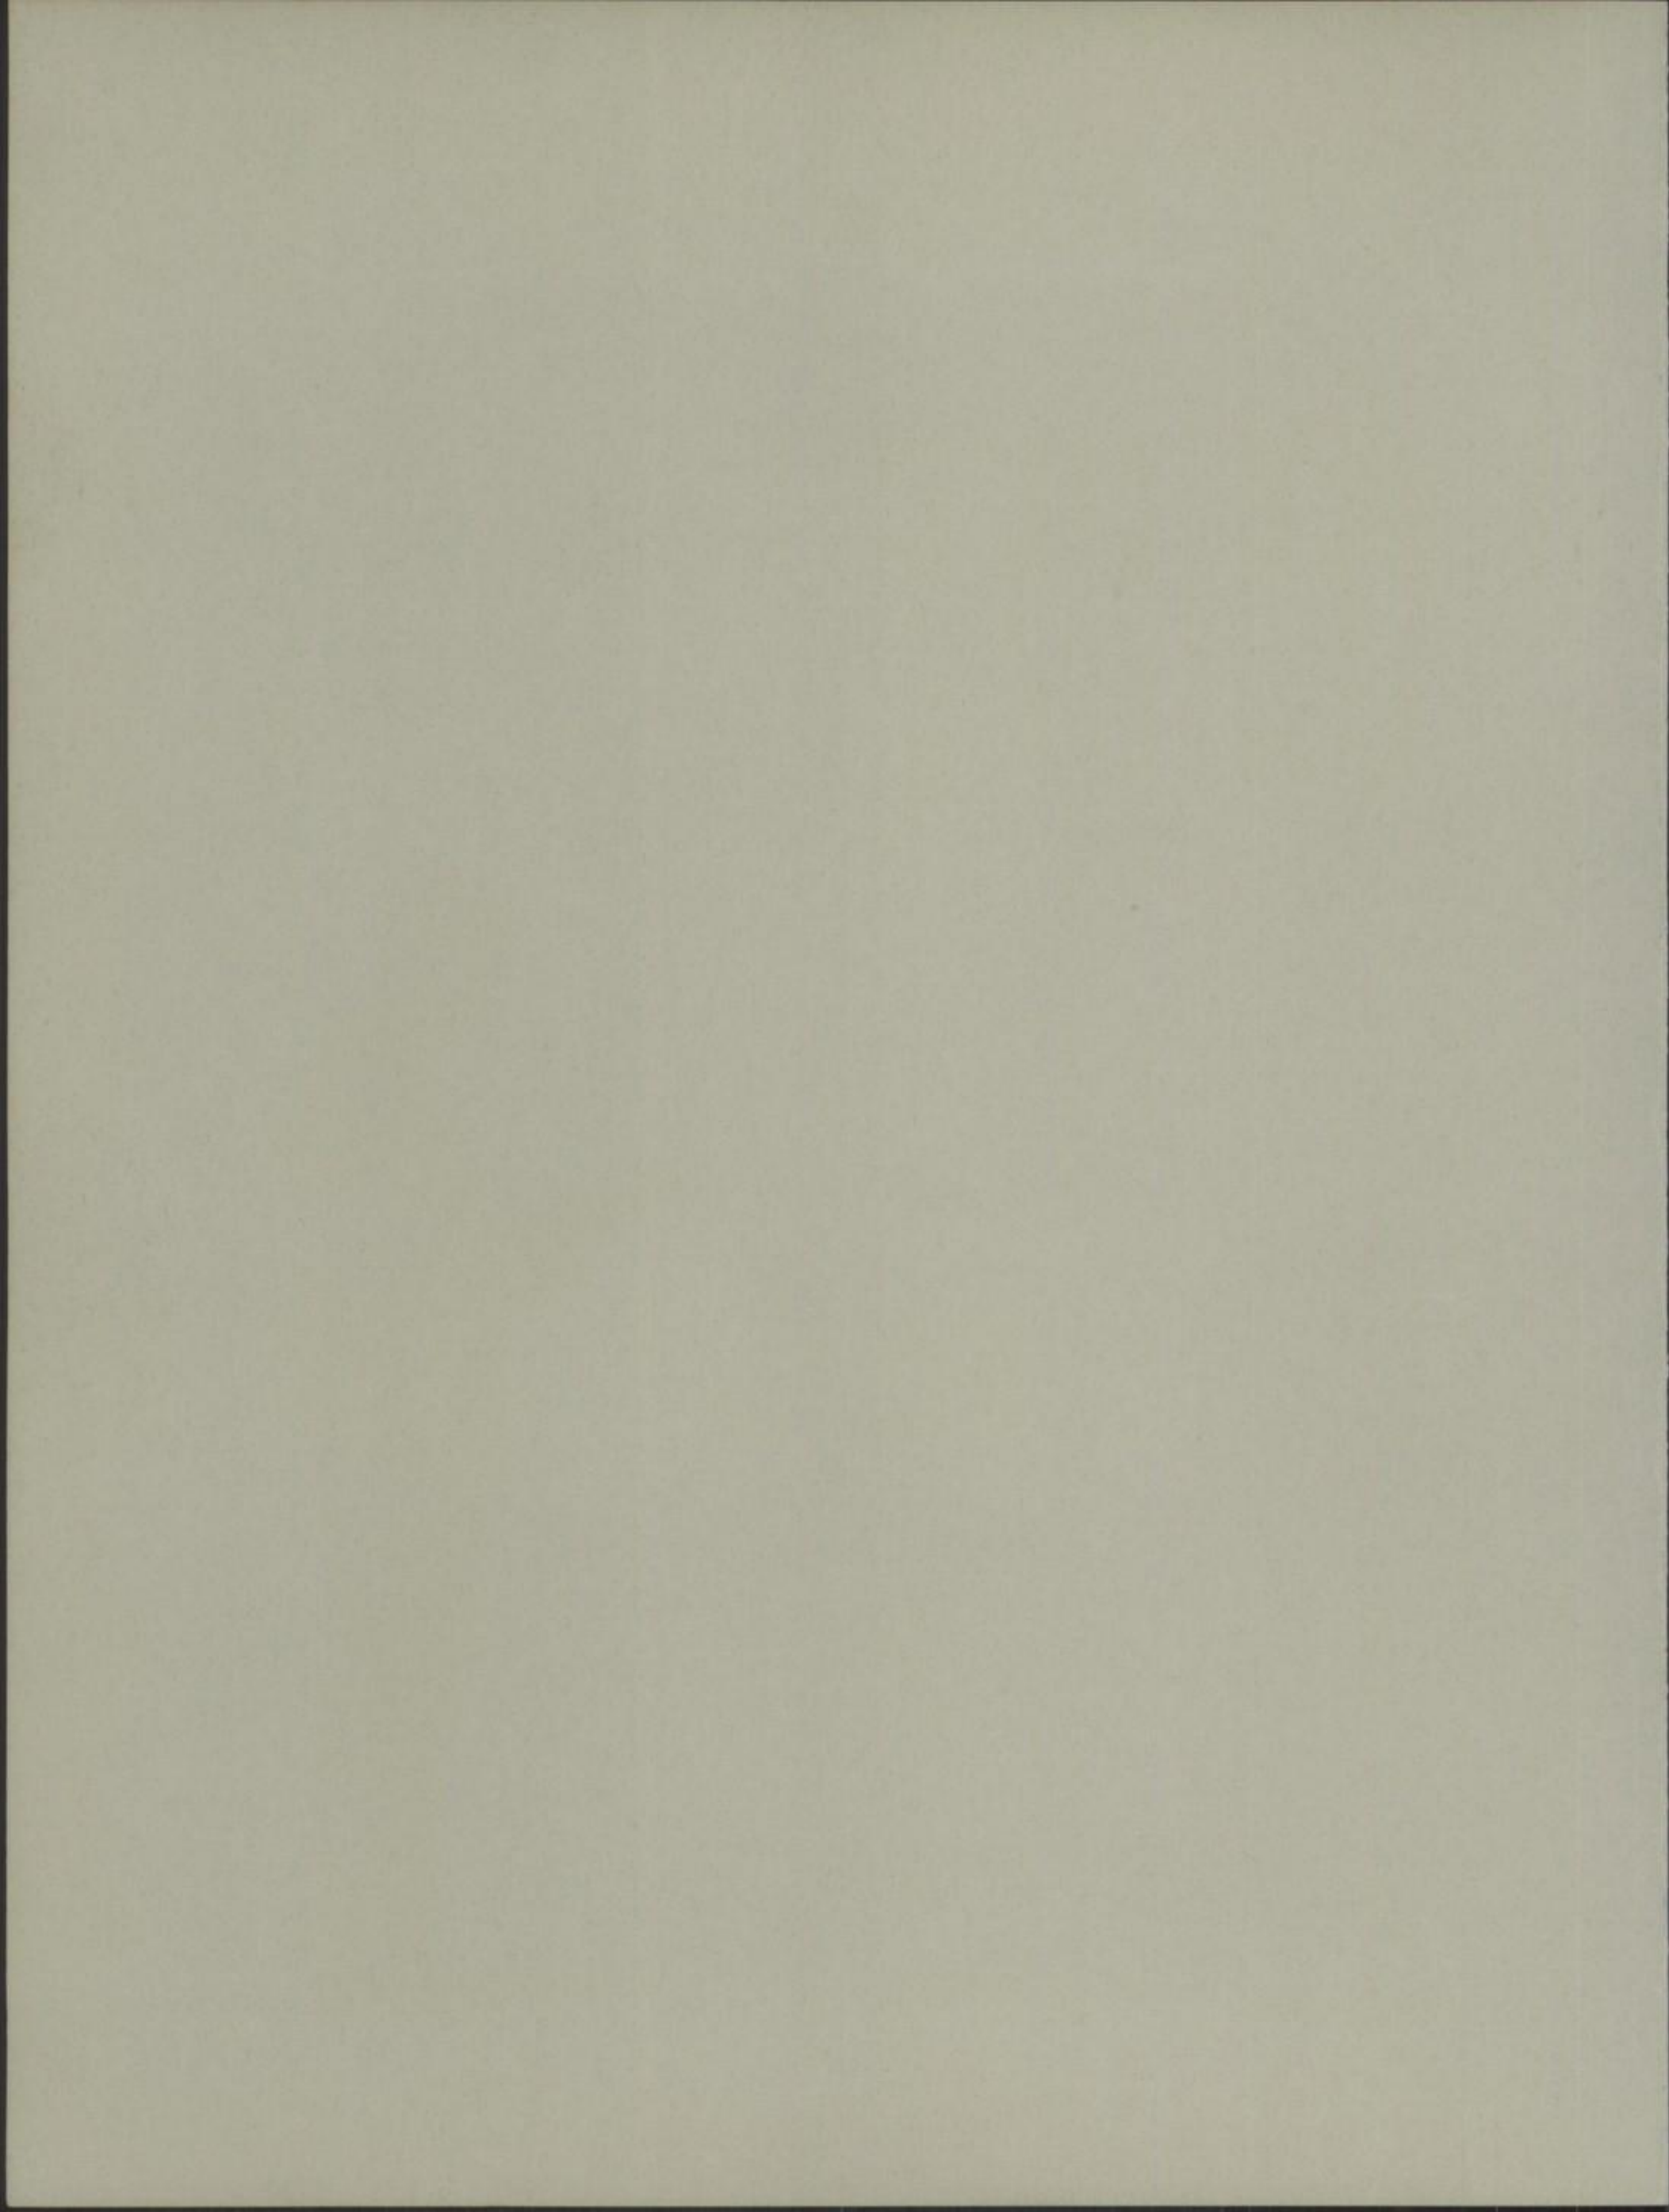

Freshman year found us rather confused at the whole business of high school, but very impressed by the "Canisius spirit." Your presence at school did much to eliminate the confusion that seemed to surround us during those early days of our Canisius life.

As sophomores, we came to know you a little better. We soon saw that Father Rector was a priest endowed with warmth, sincerity, and zeal. Even at this early stage of our development, we were aware of your constant interest in everything Canisius.

During our junior year, the name Father Rector was almost synonymous with Canisius. The school was being modernized before our eyes, and you, Father, played a major role in her improvement. A new athletic field, new chapel, new faculty residence... new was a word often mentioned in our junior year. For all this, we thank you.

CANISIUS HIGH SCHOOL
BUFFALO, NEW YORK

You are, above all, Father, a priest of God, and your primary concern has always been for our spiritual welfare. For as Ignatius was wont to say, "What does it profit a man if he gain the whole world, and suffer the loss of his soul?"

Perhaps the deepest tribute we could pay you is this - that through your wonderful and constant example, and that of your fellow Jesuits, Canisius men have come to a greater realization and love of the Eternal Truth.

You saw to it that our Sodalties and other spiritual organizations flourished. Today they occupy a prominent place on the Canisius scene for this, we thank you.

Your interest in, and appreciation of our intellectual activities has not gone unnoticed. While working at our various endeavors, we've oftentimes heard from our moderators, "Father Rector was pleased with that." To our minds, this was the highest praise we could receive. For this, we thank you.

During your many happy years at Canisius, you have exhibited a real and vivid enthusiasm for our school and its students. In athletics, in extra-curriculars, in studies - our problems, our joys, our triumphs have also been yours. For your willingness to share these moments with us, we thank you.

CANISIUS HIGH SCHOOL
BUFFALO, NEW YORK

Some of the happiest memories of our days at Canisius were formed on crisp autumn evenings in Civic Stadium. Down on the field, eleven of our schoolmates were playing their hearts out for us. In victory or defeat, we were well pleased with them.

You were also there on those chill, fall evenings, Father, watching the Blue and Gold of Canisius. We saw you at the basketball games in winter and baseball games in spring. Your interest and enthusiasm in our athletic welfare is both singular and outstanding.

Most of us do not know of the many late afternoons you spent in the gyms, taking in the basketball practices, or of the encouragement you gave to many young freshmen athletes. Many of those former freshmen are seniors today, and will long remember the interest you took in their efforts.

For all of us who enjoy participating in athletics, even though we are not of varsity caliber, you have done something marvelous. With a ten thousand dollar athletic field, you have provided facilities for the finest intramural program in Buffalo. For this, we thank you.

Varsity Basketball

You may have the ball Yahn, but Dick and Kenny won't let you go any place!

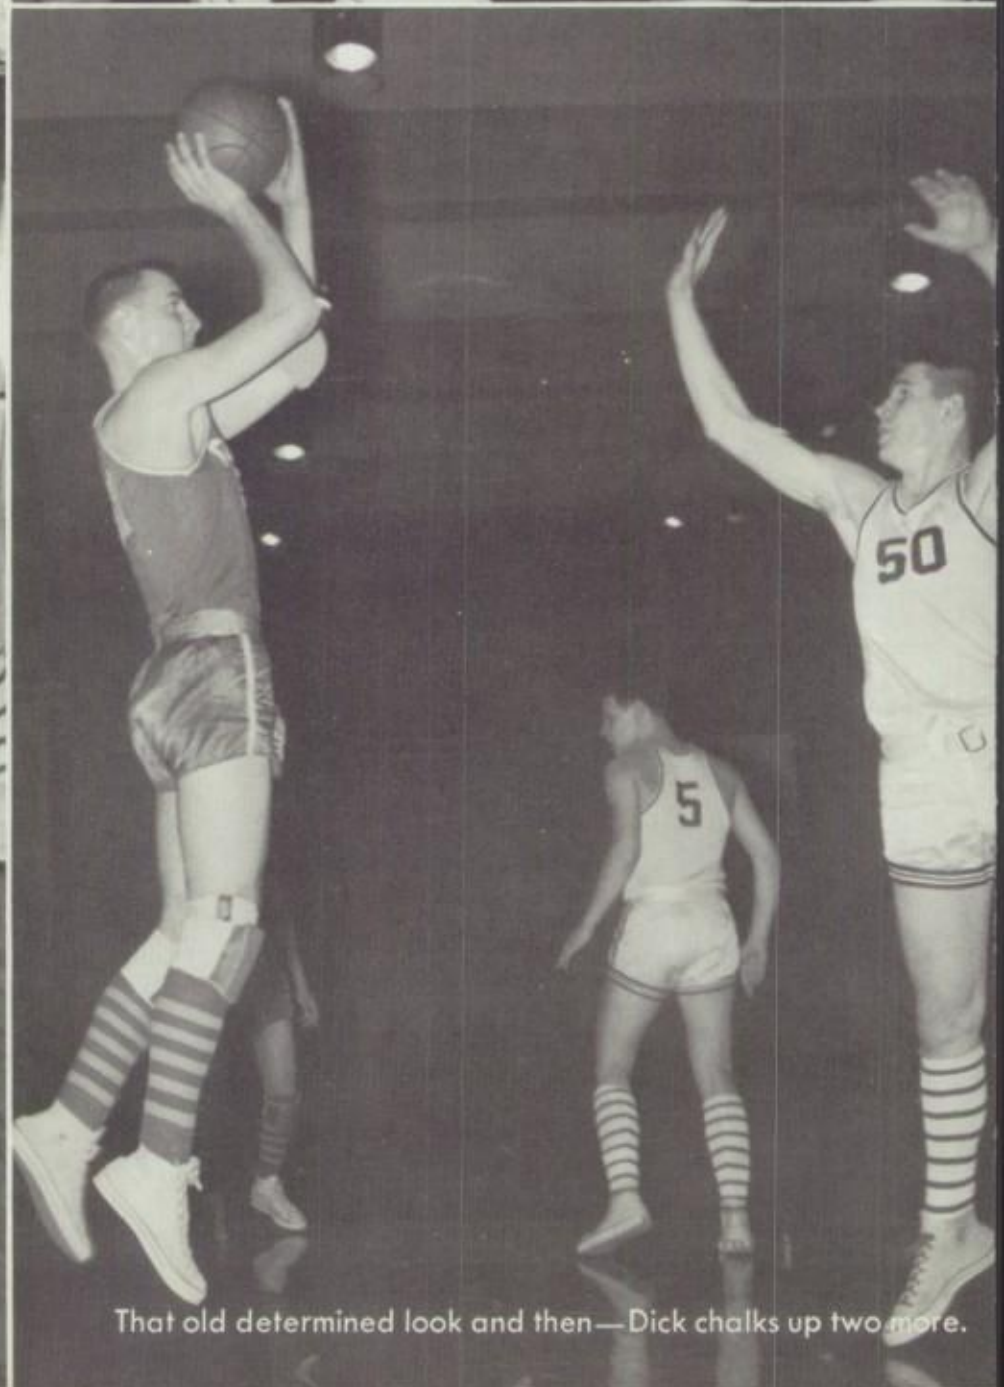

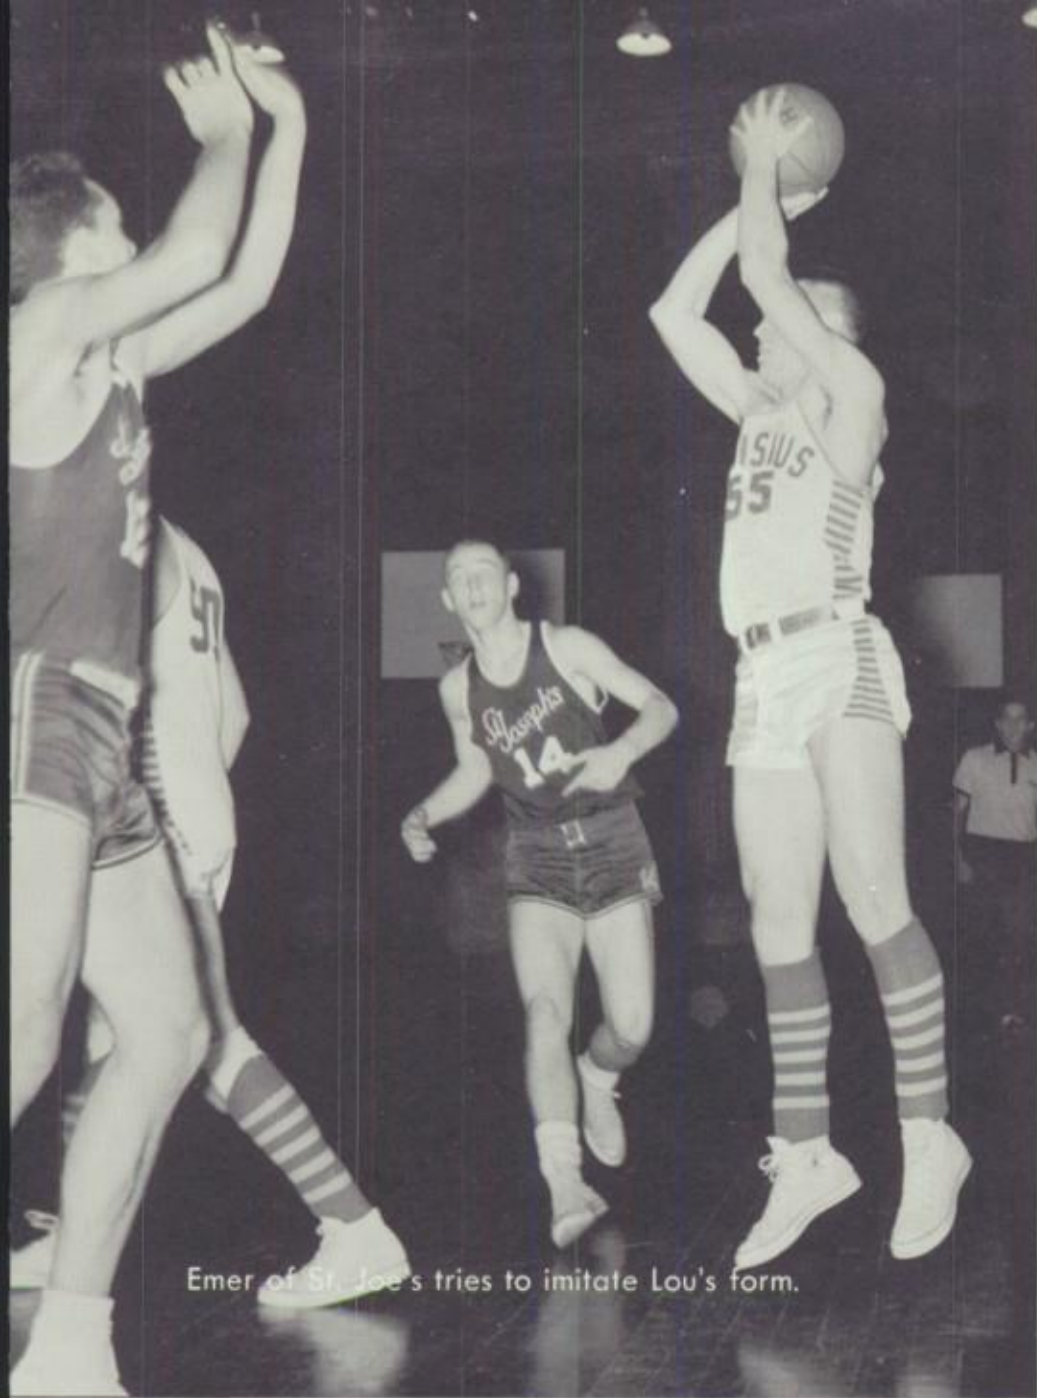

No problem here—Don towers over all for an easy basket.

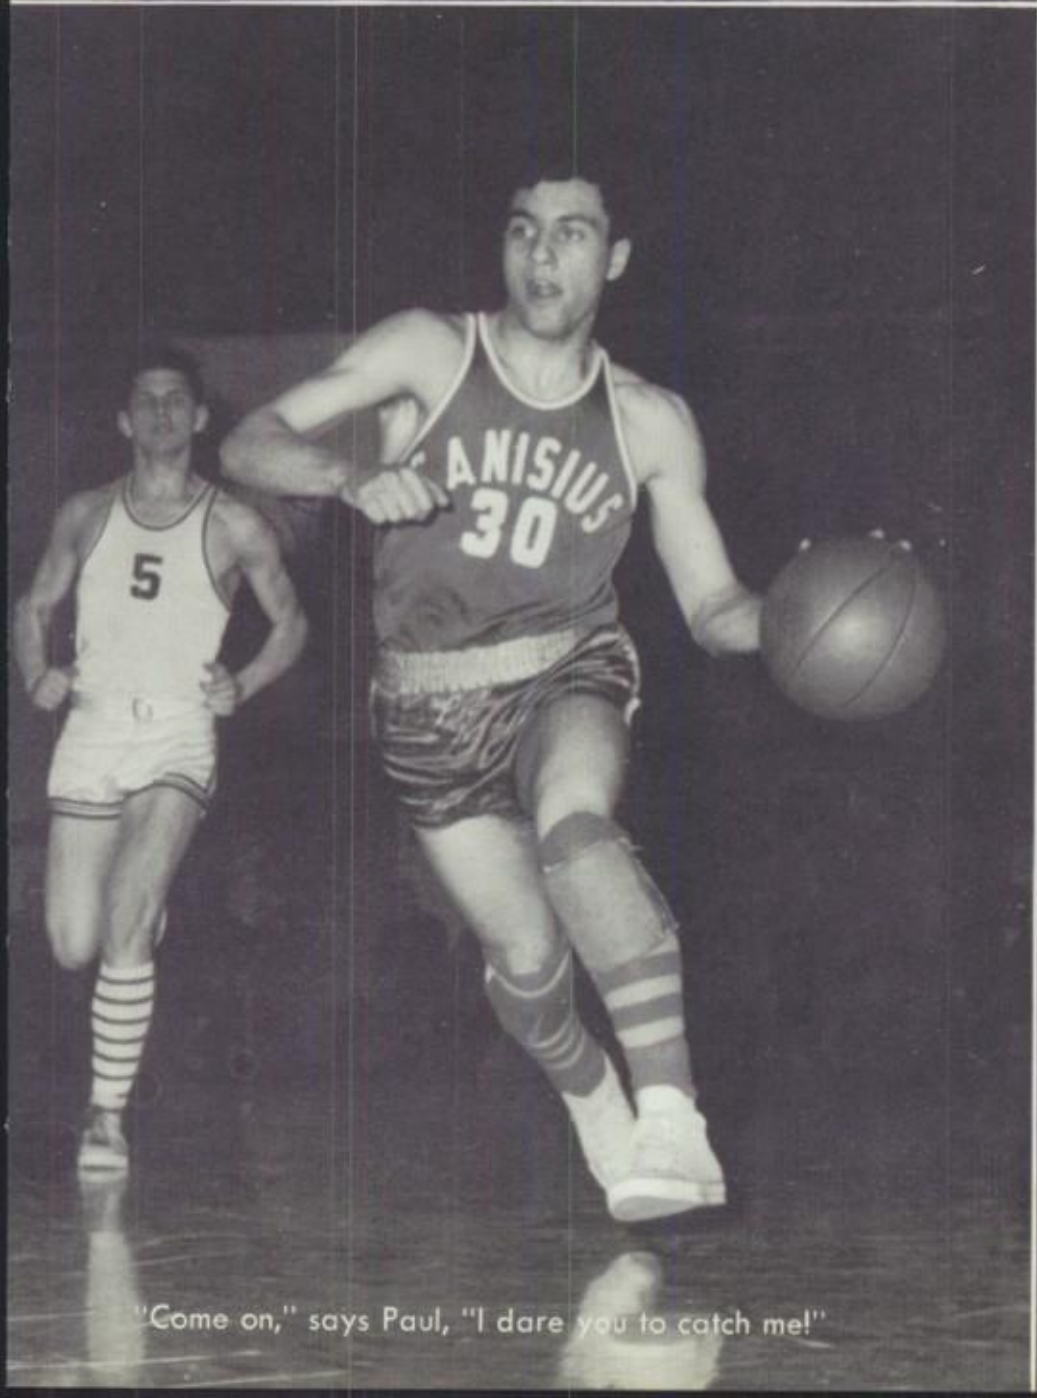

Stasio seems to find more opposition in the backboard than in St. Joe's.

That old determined look and then—Dick chalks up two more.

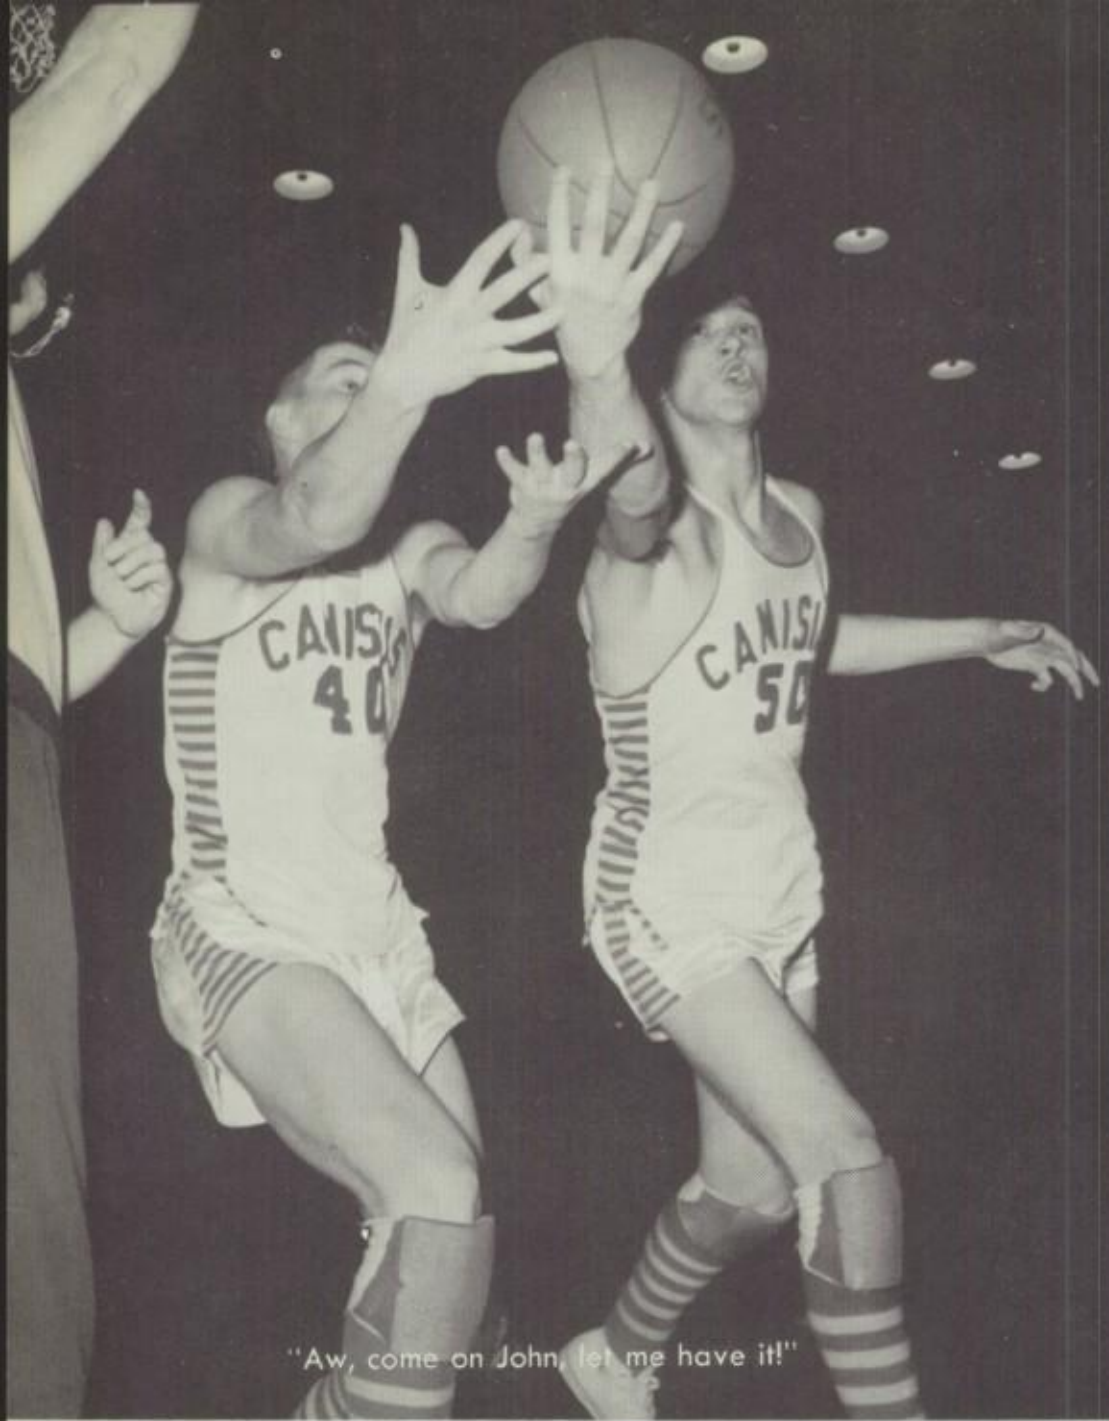

Emer of St. Joe's tries to imitate Lou's form.

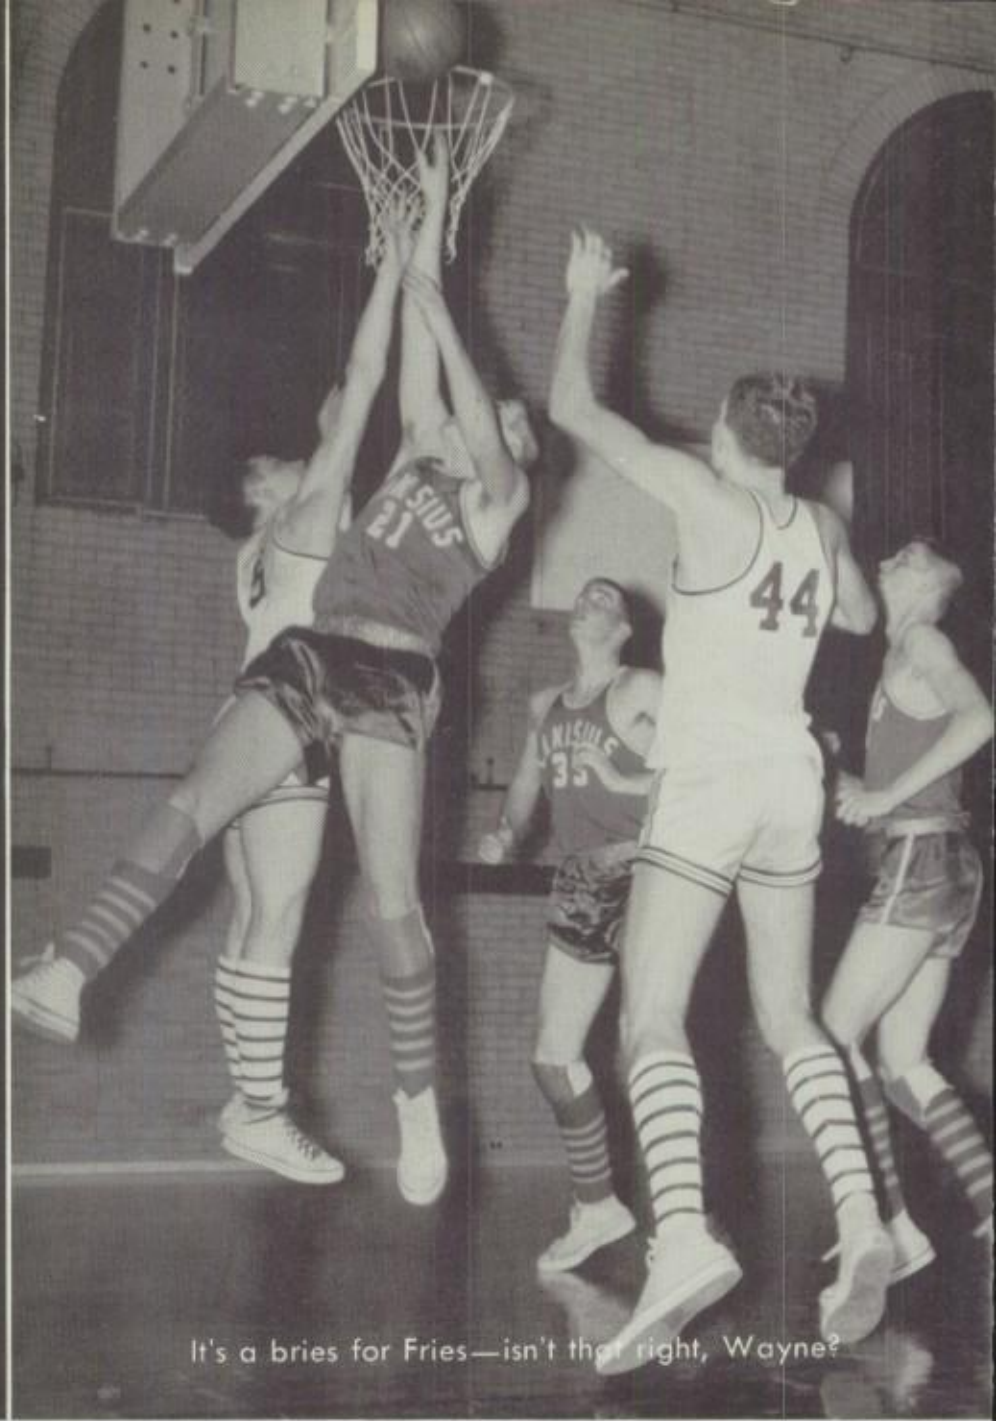

"Come on," says Paul, "I dare you to catch me!"

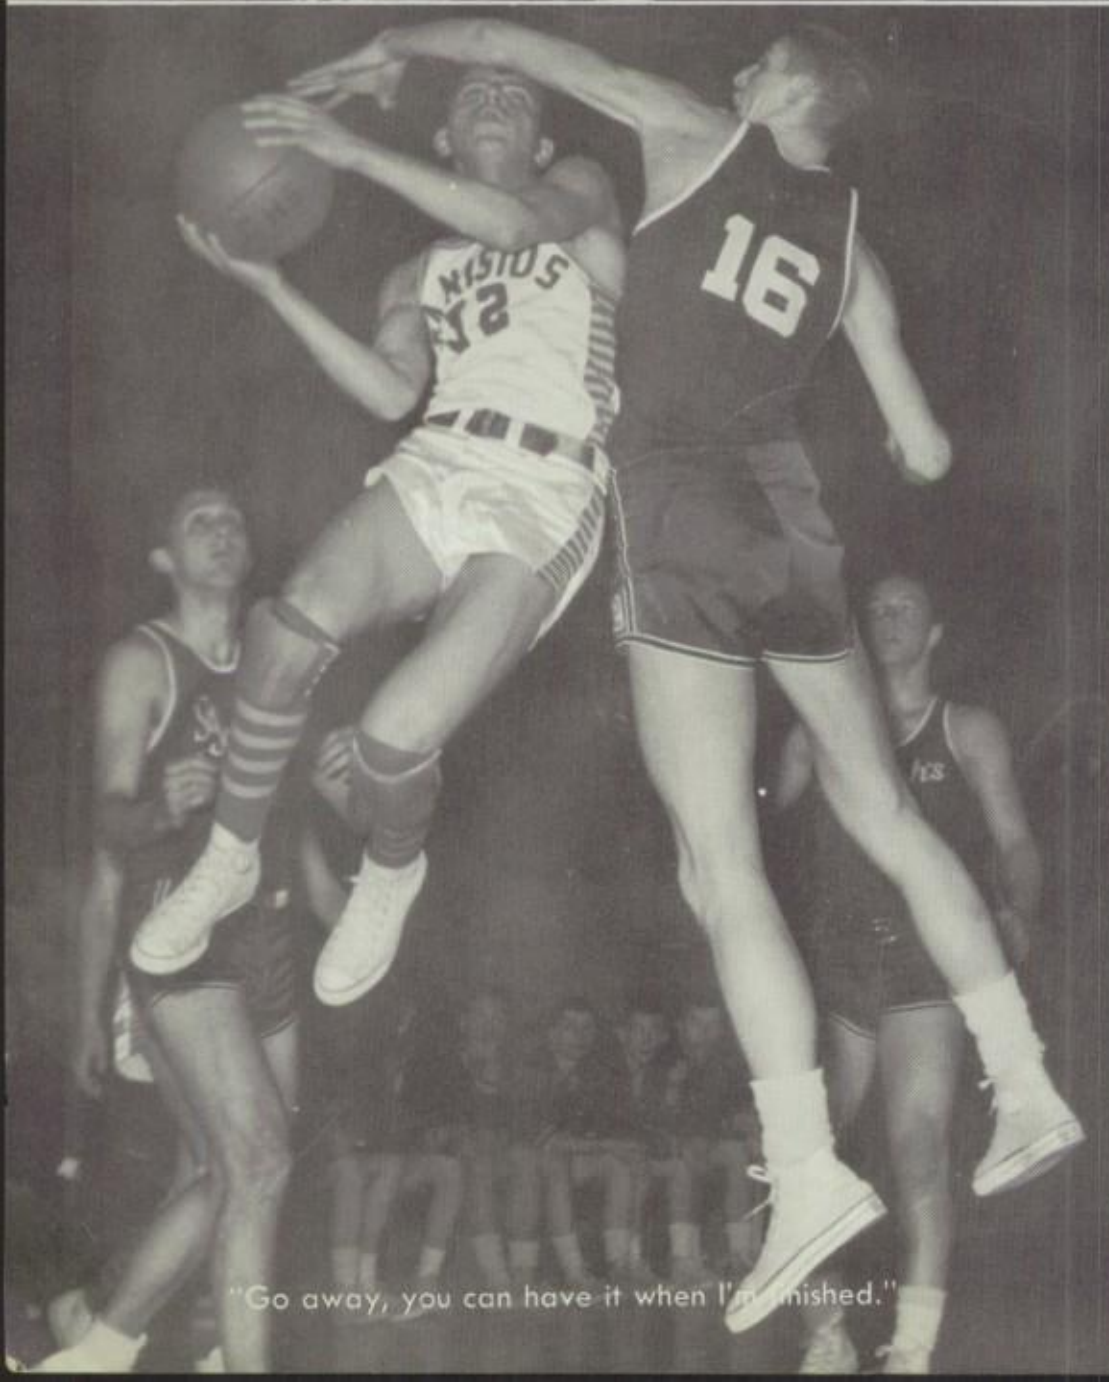

Jumping Jimmy Naples makes with some fancy footwork.

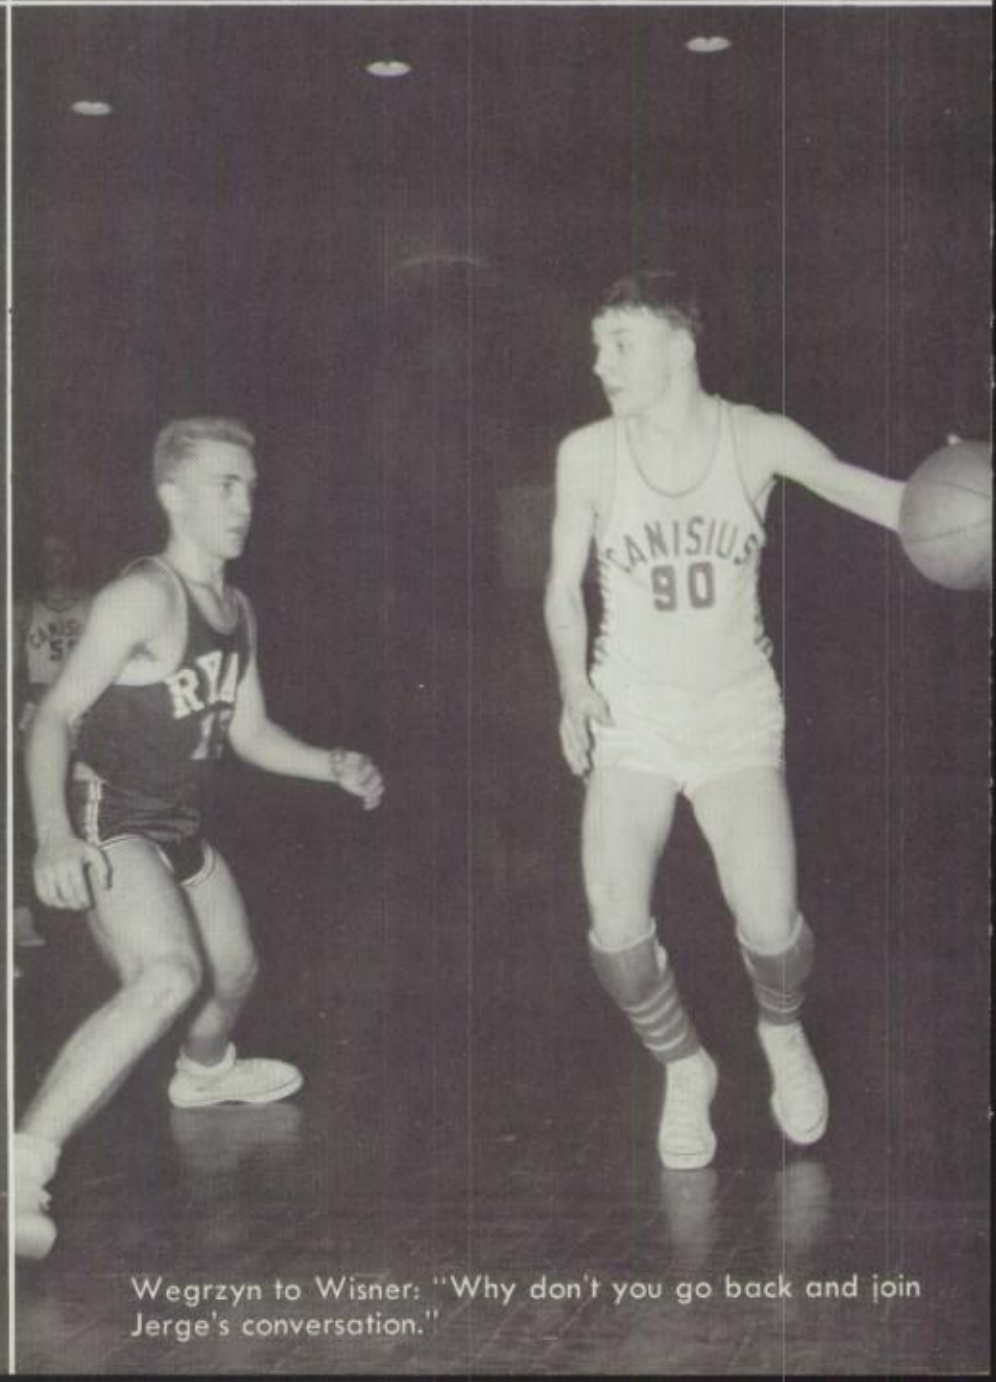

"Aw, come on John, let me have it!"

It's a bries for Fries—isn't that right, Wayne?

"Go away, you can have it when I'm finished."

Wegrzyn to Wisner: "Why don't you go back and join Jerge's conversation."

CANISIUS HIGH SCHOOL
BUFFALO, NEW YORK

Every Canisius student owes you a debt of gratitude, Father. But none are more conscious of this than the seniors. Our past four years at Canisius have been the happiest, most enriching ones of our lives. We came here as young eager boys. Today we are leaving as mature young men, thanks to you and your fellow Jesuits.

Whether it was a debate or a football game, if there were Canisius men participating, you were vitally interested. Your enthusiasm for our undertakings was a never-ending source of encouragement for us. You have continually been a motivating factor in all of our extra-curricular endeavors. For this, we thank you.

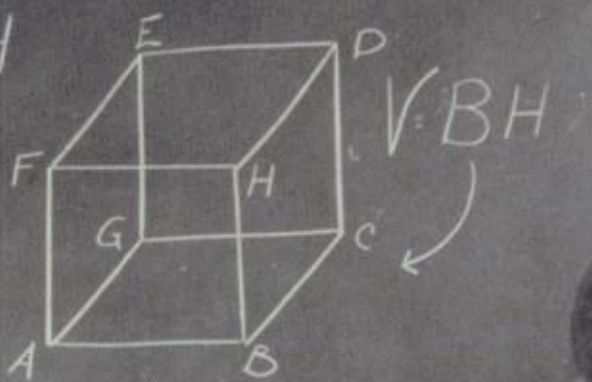

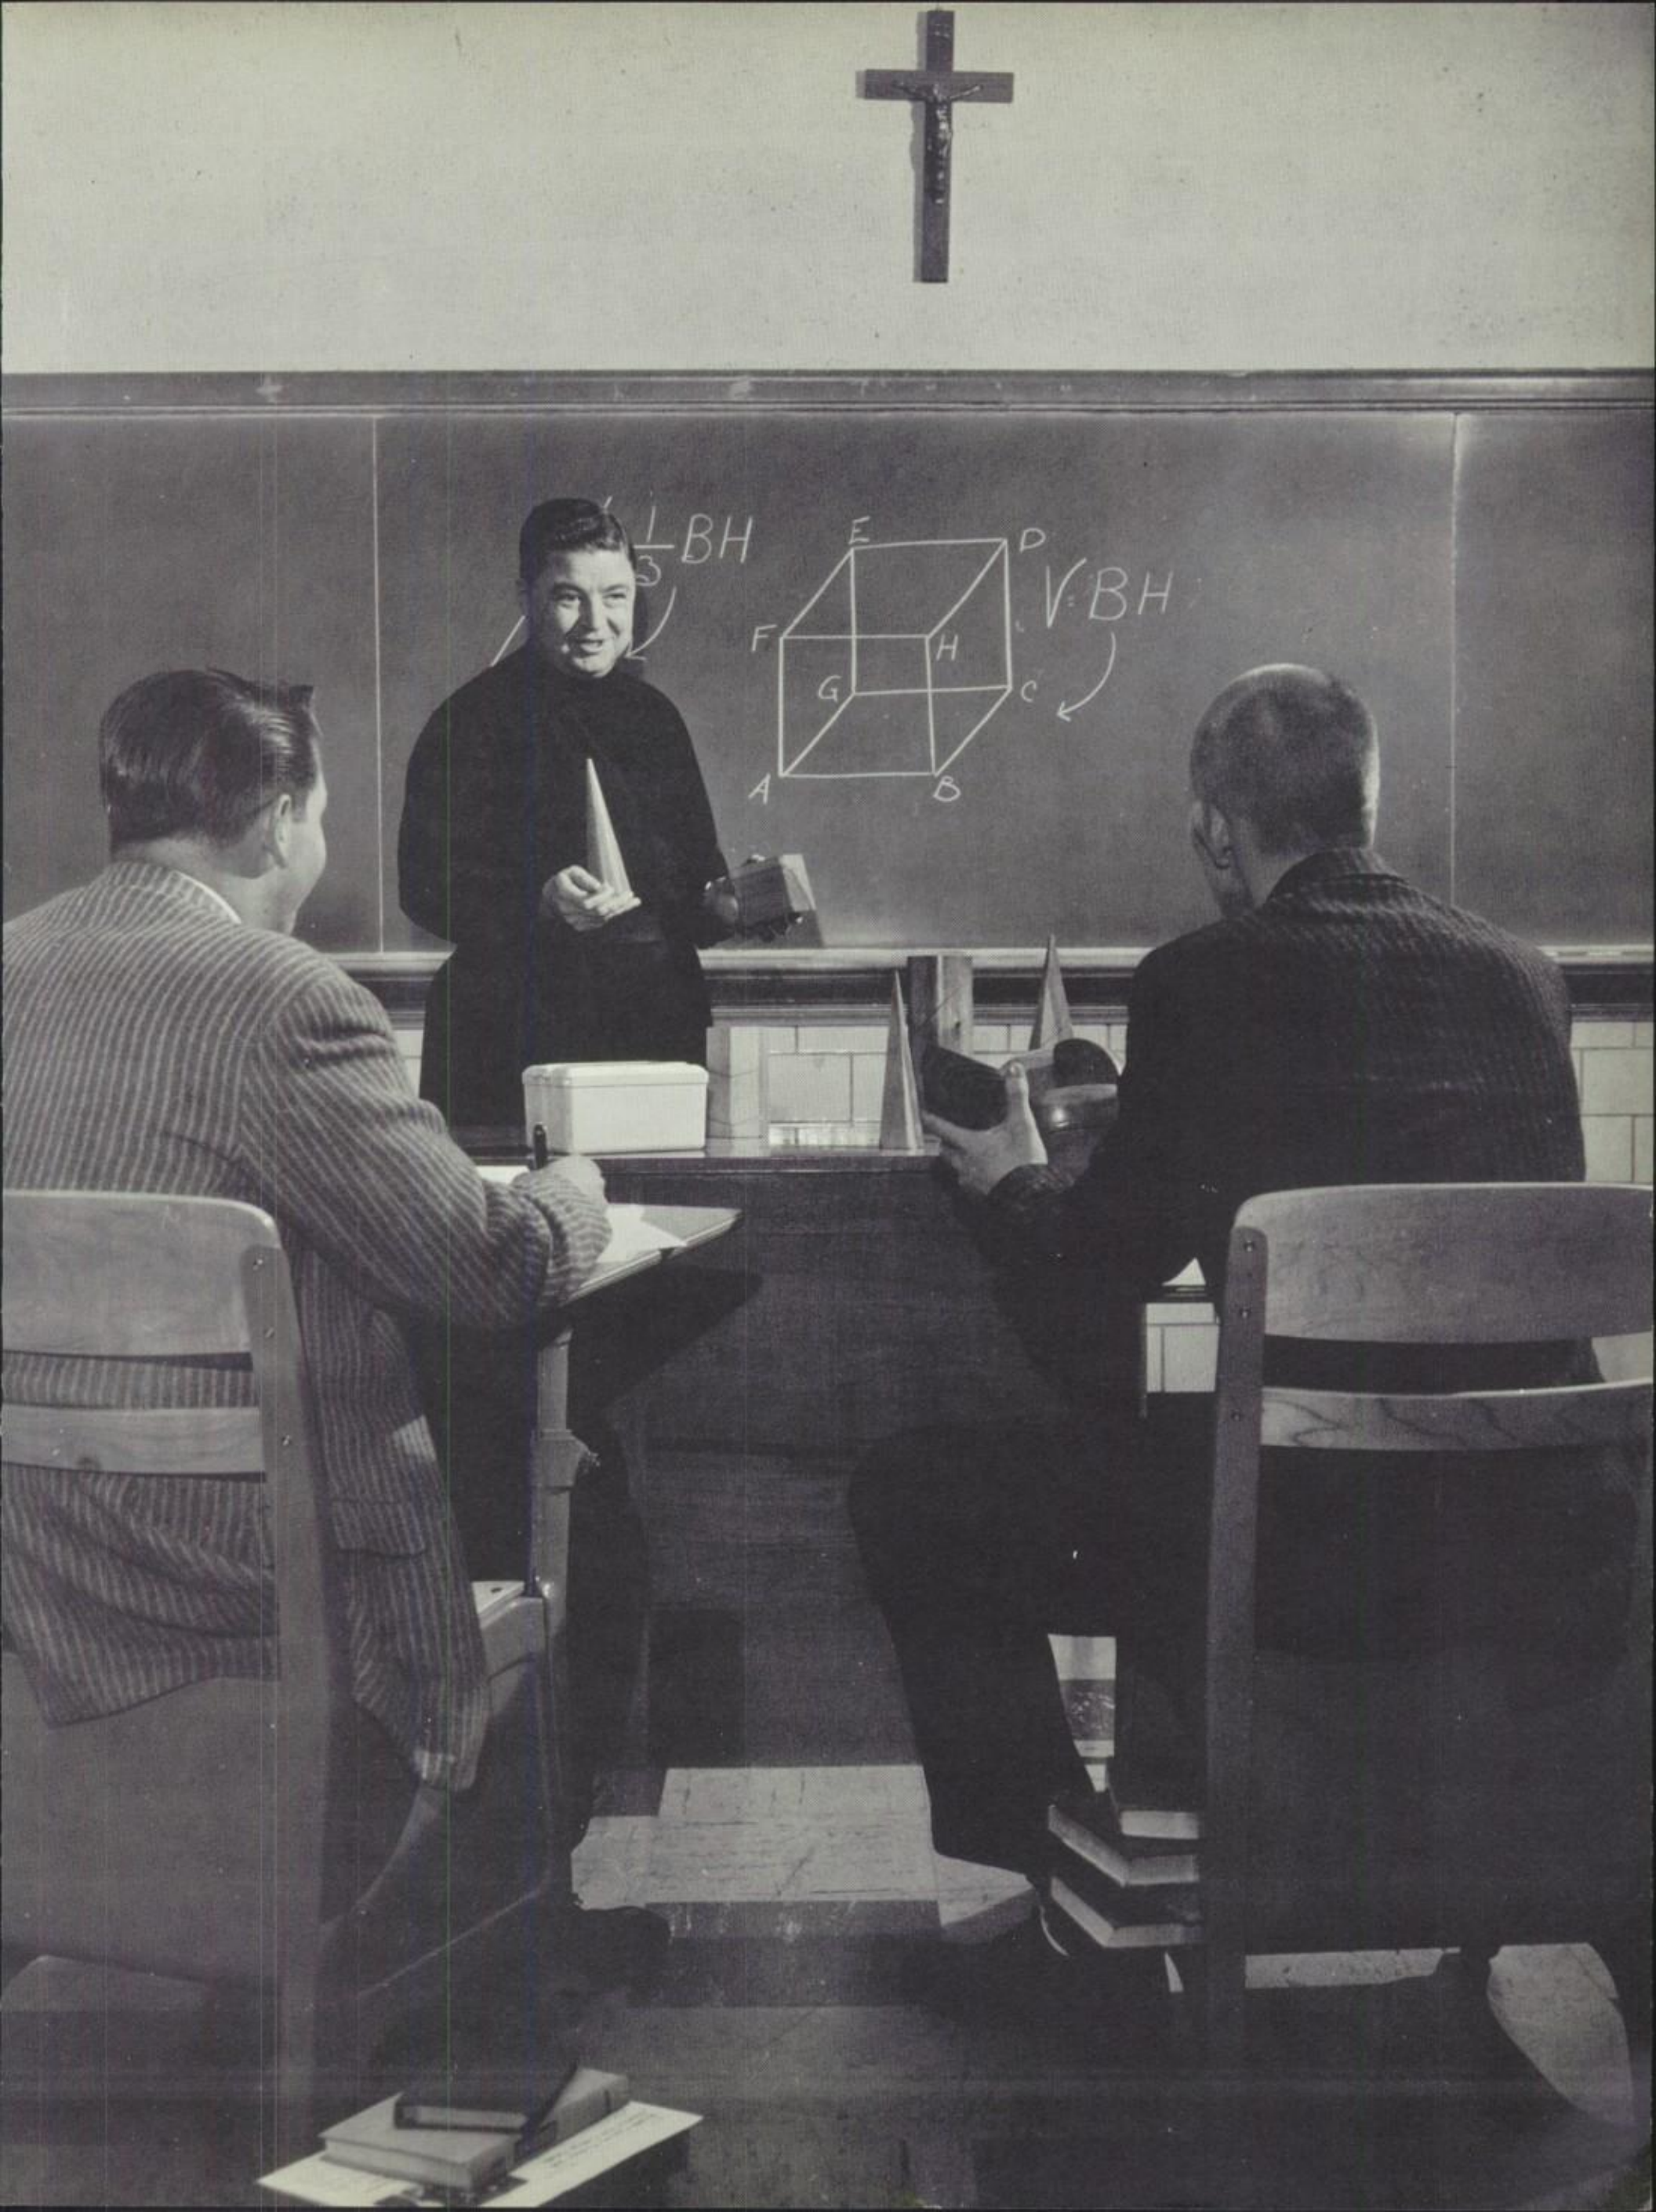

And so, Father, you have come to the end of your Canisius career with us. Though we now go our separate ways down the winding corridor of life, our years together at Canisius will link us in an inseparable bond.

May the Lord watch over you and grant that your future years be spent in happiness, contentment, and that peace of mind attained only through complete devotion to the work of Our Lord, Jesus Christ.

Yours sincerely,
The Seniors

CANISIUS YOUR home-town college

Canisius offers you all the advantages of going to college in your own home town plus the guarantee of a top quality education under the direction of the Jesuit Fathers. Their tradition and experience in education is over 400 years old.

Canisius as a liberal arts college offers you the best foundation on which to build a successful career in any field—science, business, or the professions.

Canisius has a "cosmopolitan" faculty: the 93 full-time faculty members who teach undergraduate students hold a total of 266 degrees from 69 different institutions, including 15 famous foreign universities. Almost 70 percent have doctoral degrees.

Canisius is located in the heart of the Buffalo-Niagara community which affords you unlimited employment opportunities in a wide variety of professional careers.

Canisius College located right here in your own home town is well worth your consideration as your first choice in colleges. It will pay you in many ways to telephone the Director of Admissions at GARfield 7000 or visit him in his office on the college campus at 2001 Main Street, Buffalo 8, New York.
